

Nouns and Verbs

Noun – A person, place, thing, or idea

Verb – An action

Noun Verb Noun Noun

James threw the ball to Henry.

Noun Verb Noun

The pig ate all the carrots.

Noun Noun Verb Noun

How many fish do you see in the pond?

Compound Nouns and Verbs

Noun Noun Verb Noun Verb

Henry and James walked to the grocery store and bought some food before they went home.

Noun Verb Noun

Subject and Object of the Verb

Subject Verb Object

The man pushed the door.